

DAVID T. TOWLES.

APRIL 21, 1904.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. CALDERHEAD, from the committee of conference, submitted the following

CONFERENCE REPORT.

[To accompany H. R. 1851.]

The committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendment of the Senate to the bill (H. R. 1851), "An act granting an increase of pension to David T. Towles," having met, after full and free conference have agreed to recommend and do recommend to their respective Houses as follows:

That the House concur in the Senate amendment.

HENRY R. GIBSON,
ROBERT W. MIERS,
C. A. SULLOWAY,

Managers on the part of the House.

P. J. McCUMBER,
W. B. SCOTT,

Managers on the part of the Senate.

STATEMENT OF MANAGERS ON PART OF THE HOUSE.

This bill originally passed the House at $36 per month, but was amended in the Senate to $30 per month. The result of the conference is that the House conferees recommend that the House recede and concur in the Senate amendment, and that the bill be passed at $30 per month.

W. A. CALDERHEAD,
ELIAS DEEMER,
ROBERT W. MIERS,

Managers on the part of the House.
